

Stephen Ministry Weekly Prayer Request Newsletter – November 11, 2023

Annie Imel (DIL of Joy and John Imel) – Annie has felt better every day this week. Please continue to pray for complete remission of her cancer.

Pat Wonderly – Pat can walk with assistance. Please continue to pray that a decision will be made soon as to what treatment will be done for Pat's tumor.

Esther Withers – Esther thinks she is well enough to be removed from the prayer list. Thank you for all your prayers,

Kristen and Mike Musick (office manager and husband of Becky Roman's brother-in-law) – No change for Kristen and Mike. Please continue to pray for both as well as their children.

Barbara Hill – Please continue to pray as Barbara awaits her EMG/NC study on November 20. She also needs prayer because she suffered a fall when she was going out the door and fell, hitting the back of her head. Had to go back to ER. On concussion protocol. Will be checked out again next Wednesday.

Ginger Lusk – Ginger's doctor says that her hip is in great shape. He has scheduled a knee replacement on the 27th of November for Ginger. She is hopeful once this is done, she will have pain-free walking. Please pray this will be so,

Winn Lusk – Winn has a job interview scheduled for November 14. Please pray that this will be the one to get Winn employed again.

Dianna Davidson – Dianna is doing well at home but unfortunately, she is experiencing stomach issues again when she has dialysis. Please pray this is short lived.

Judy McMinn – Judy now has an appointment at OU Health Center for physical therapy. The daily exercising of her legs has resulted in strengthening of her legs. Please pray this continues to help Judy in mobility.

Jane Foreman – Praise for improvement in Jane's mobility and mindset and prayer for continued energy and protection from falls.

Norma Boland – Norma continues to need pain for unrelenting back pain and gastric problems. She is going to return to her old back physician to ask for the past injections that are temporary since Medicare continues to deny the new injections that must be given in the hospital. Please pray she will be able to get these injections soon.

Dan Boland – Dan's recovery from his stent surgery has gone well. He is feeling good now and would like to thank everyone for their prayers.

Page 2

Cheryl Andrews – Cheryl continues to do well in the nursing home. Please pray she will find contentment and peace there.

Greg Spiser (brother of Mike Spiser)- Greg has taken a turn for the worse. He is in the ICU, and it is questionable whether he will make it. Please pray for healing for Greg and for the staff to know how to help Greg. Pray also for the family to have peace.

Brent Lawrence (nephew of Mike Spiser) – Brent is now home, and his kidney function is much better. Thank you for your prayers.

Mike Spiser – Mike is still deciding whether he will have surgery intervention for his kidney stones. Please pray for wisdom for him to make the right decision.

Lee Spiser (brother of Mike Spiser) – Lee is back at work with some adjustments to his workplace. He is still having some back pain. Please pray for complete relief of the pain.

Paula Galt – Paula remains in hospice care. Please continue to pray for peace and comfort for her.

Roger Pautsch – Overall, it has been a better week for Roger. Therapy is helping, and he is doing his exercises consistently. He has been able to accomplish more tasks recently. Please pray this continues for Roger.

Dorothy Sipes -As always, please continue to pray for Dorothy as she continues about the same with little awareness of where she is or who people are.

Karen Hall (friend of Sandy Kelly) – Karen is now able to walk with a cane with a walker as a backup. She will have another MRI scan and PET scan next month. Please pray the scans

Tiffany Montesano – Tiffany will see her cardiologist on November 29. She has a colonoscopy on the 21st of November. Please pray her visit and colonoscopy go well and for healing for Tiffany.

Jeff Montesano – Jeff is feeling a little better after his neck surgery. His pain is controlled by medication. Please continue to pray for complete healing for Jeff.

Geo Montesano – Geo has now switched to an online school for the rest of the year. Please pray this will help him be more successful in completing the school year.

Hank Brueggen – Hank had chemotherapy this week and has been feeling better the last few days. CT scans are scheduled for later this month. The plan is to see what they show before making further decisions on his treatment.

Carol Hall – Carol started her chemotherapy this week and so far has tolerated it. Please continue praying the chemotherapy puts Carol in remission from her cancer.

Page 3

Mary Jane Svejkovsky – Mary Jane is about the same with fatigue her most troublesome symptom. Please pray she will regain her strength so she can walk further distances.

Beth Bidne – Beth has been working on building up her strength. She will return to her doctor next week for follow-up. She will do another 12 weeks of chemotherapy. Pray that Beth has few side effects from chemo.

Judy Knight – Judy's week has gone well with better sleep patterns. She was given medication for her UTI. Please pray for continued healing so she can return to school.

Cindy Wilkerson (DIL of Frank and Nadine Wilkerson) – Cindy had a bad week with a lot of pain that required her to go to hospital to get an injection for the pain. Please continue to pray for Cindy to have complete healing from her cancer.

Mary Desmukes – Mary is hanging in there. She seems to be in a good frame of mind. Continue to pray for clarity of mind and comfort.

Kelli Pavelko – Kelli is home now. She missed her therapist appointment on the 7th so it has been rescheduled for the 19th of November. Please pray she can get on track with her mental therapist and have peace of mind.