I don't have the words to say THANKS! I appreciate so very much all the love shown this past Sunday at the retirement party! To all those who organized, decorated, baked, wrote cards, shared hugs, gave kind words and gave gifts all I can say is thanks. It has been a blessing for me to serve alongside the many saints of St. Mark's and I wish you could know the joy it has given me. Know that my prayers and thanks will continue for each of you. Continue to carry the kingdom to Bethany and the world and share the special love you have with a hurting world.

THANK YOU, St. Markians!

Blessings, Pat Morford

Lesson Overview

Peter suffered many failures, but we are going to briefly look at 3 of them. When Peter stepped out of the boat. When Jesus was arrested. When Peter assaulted the High Priest's servant with a sword.

After each of these failures, Jesus reprimanded Peter's behavior. But Jesus never gave up on Peter and He will never give up on US.

But God is faithful & fair. If we confess our sins he will forgive our sins He will forgive every wrong thing we have done. He will make us pure 1 John 1:9 (NIRV)

Train up a child in the way he should go, even when he is old he will not depart from it. Proverbs 22:6
