

St. Mark's

BETHANY

December 27, 2023

Join us this Sunday for worship at St. Mark's. This Sunday we will have a combined service @ 10 am as we prepare for the new year 2024. Pastor Randy will wrap up his series, "Places It Happened". This week the message will be "All Over the World". If you are not able to attend Worship services there will be a live streaming of the 10 am and 7 pm worship. To watch the live stream, you can join us at 10 am Service

Join us for our Upside –Down News Years

Following Combined Services on the 31st, you are invited to join us for a unique celebration of welcoming in the new year. We will gather in Barnett Hall for a time of snacks and fellowship and then watch as the ball drops us into a new year. We will get the new year started in prayer and thanks for all that God has done for us.

It's not too late to give to Christmas Eve Offering

St. Mark's has had a wonderful history with our Christmas Eve offerings. Each year money collected during Christmas Eve Services goes somewhere in the world to make a real difference in the world for the kingdom. This year we will be assisting to build a Women's Center in Kigoma, Tanzania. The Center will be next to the St. Mark's Methodist Church we helped to build there and will be heavily involved in the community to provide opportunities for events, teaching, shelter and other community events.

Prayer Guide

The Way to the Kingdom

Each morning at 4 a.m., John Wesley would kneel in prayer in his London home. It was in this place that the fires of Methodism began. As we seek to reconnect to our Wesleyan heritage, it seems the best place we can begin is in prayer. Join us in our monthly prayer series: The Way to the Kingdom.

The Way to Wisdom

Dr. Steve Seamands

“Select from among yourselves seven men of good standing, full of the Spirit and of wisdom.” (Acts 6:3, emphasis added) Faced with growing dissension within their ranks, that was the Apostles solution for the growing food distribution problem in the Jerusalem church. And their proposal pleased the whole community (Acts 6:5). So, they chose seven persons like Stephen. Later, even those who violently opposed him, “could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke.” (Acts 6:10)

From its inception, the church has needed leaders, “full of the Spirit and of wisdom.” And how desperately we need them today, especially as we prepare to embark on a perilous voyage into uncharted waters, in the formation and establishment of the Global Methodist Church. So, we need to earnestly pray for wise leaders that the new church will walk in the way of wisdom. And that’s the focus of our prayer guide this month.

But what exactly characterizes a wise leader? In New Testament Words, William Barclay discusses the background and meaning of the three great Greek words (sophia, phronesis, sunesis) associated with wisdom found in the New Testament.

Each captures an essential element of wisdom.

- Sophia pertains to awareness of eternal things. It has to do primarily with knowledge of ultimate things, human and divine.
- Phronesis, often translated prudence, is the ability to apply knowledge to the practical problems of daily life and living. Much of the Old Testament wisdom literature such as Proverbs falls into this category.
- Sunesis is the ability to test, evaluate and form appropriate judgments. The wise can intelligently assess difficult situations and then choose the right course of action in response to them.

The way to wisdom combines all three elements. According to Barclay, it involves being “wise in the things of eternity and efficient in the things of time.” In Jesus, we find the perfect embodiment of wisdom. Paul stresses that He himself is wisdom, the wisdom of God (1 Cor. 1:24, 30). In Him are all the treasures of wisdom (Col. 2:3).

A Suggested Pattern of Prayer

As you pray through the following prayer points, invite the presence of the Lord into your time of prayer. Each day's prompt has a Scripture reference for you to pray through. As you pray also allow time to listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying to you. When you have prayed through the Scripture and prayer point, you may be led to add your own prayers. Pray and consider what action steps you might take in response to the Lord's leading. Repeat this prayer pattern weekly for the month.

Sunday: James urges us to ask, and God will give us wisdom "generously and ungrudgingly". Pray, boldly asking God to grant us wisdom for the living of these days. (James 1:5)

Monday: Pray for wisdom as sophia in the GM Church, the ability to distinguish between the eternal and the temporal so that we can hold fast to the things that never age. (Matthew 7:24-27)

Tuesday: Since Christ himself is our wisdom, pray for a deepening of our union with Christ, so that as our love and devotion for him increases, our wisdom will increase. (Colossians 2:3)

Wednesday: Pray for prudential, practical wisdom (phronesis), particularly in relation to complex decisions GM Church leaders must make. (Proverbs 8:11-12)

Thursday: Pray that we would not be seduced by the power and wisdom of this world but hold fast to the foolishness of God's wisdom revealed in Christ's cross. (1 Corinthians 1:22-25)

Friday: Pray for an increase of wisdom as sunesis, so that we might discern the long-term implications and consequences of current decisions. (1 Kings 3:9)

Saturday: Pray that God will raise up women and men "full of the Spirit and of wisdom" to lead us in the coming days. (Acts 6:3)

In Him are all the treasures of wisdom. (Col. 2:3)
